Program INFORMATION

Prerequisites

International students should have a basic level of English to understand and take part in classes. English Level of B2 or equivalent is recommended.

Aim

This short program will focus on various topics that best describe Vietnam. Each session will focus on one theme, such as Vietnam's famous attractions; Vietnamese people and values; Festivals and Foods in Vietnam. The whole course will be conducted by FPT's students, under general guidance of Vietnamese lecturers. Because this course is between students and students, the environment is expected to be interactive, fun and comfortable where students actively participate and contribute to the discussions of each session.

Session 1: "Attractions"

Vietnam is well-known to many travelers for its wonderful natural beauty: From the green rice fields in the north to the fascinating bustle of the Mekong Delta in the south. In this session, an overview of most amazing tourist attractions in Vietnam will be introduced, through the eyes of locals.

Session 2: "People and Values"

Vietnamese society has a strong system of values and ethics that define the actions of most individuals. These values not only play a great role in forming Vietnamese lifestyle but also affirm the intense vitality of the nation in the past, present and future. Through this session, international students will have a better insight of Vietnamese people, society and its value system.

Session 3: "Festival"

Vietnam has a unique culture that has undergone over the millennia. This leads to numerous special festivals where the belief and tradition of Vietnamese people are shown. In this session, students will have a chance to somehow take part in popular Vietnam festivals from the North to South to see the unique characteristics of each region.

Session 4: "Food"

Vietnam cuisine has earned its reputation over the years with the famous Pho and Banh Mi. However, that is not the whole essence of Vietnamese culinary culture. From the North to the South, there are many more traditional foods which are formed from the lives of Vietnamese people all over the nation. Through this session, students will gain an understanding of Vietnam cuisine and its place within Vietnamese culture.
